1. Oxford Economic Papers is a general journal publishing papers in a wide range of areas in theoretical and applied economics. We occasionally publish survey articles in addition to original papers. Books are not reviewed, but substantial review articles will be considered.
2. Submitted manuscripts must be original, unpublished contributions. They must not be concurrently on offer to any other publication.
3. New papers can be submitted online at <http://oep.edmgr.com>. A more detailed guide for submitting papers can be found there or authors can contact the OEP office for information.
4. An abstract of strictly 150 words or less must accompany the paper.
